St. Alexandra of Rome (c. 300AD) was the wife and empress of the Roman Emperor Diocletan. Although her husband hated Christians, she was inspired by St. George and became a Christian herself. When she openly professed her faith, she was condemned to death. Just before her execution, she was allowed to rest and she died peacefully before the soldiers could kill her. St. Alexandra’s feast day is on 23 April.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, give me courage to stand with You when others challenge me to reject You. Amen.

St. Augustine Zhao Rong (c. 1800s) lived in China during a time when Christians were persecuted there. He was one of the soldiers accompanying missionary bishop, St. Gabriel-Taurin Dufresse, to die for his faith. St. Augustine was so inspired by Bishop Dufresse that he himself was baptized and became a priest. Later, he was martyred together with 119 companions for their faith in Jesus. Their feast day is on 9 July.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, Your love reaches to the ends of the world. I want to bring the joy of the Gospel to everyone. Amen.

St. Christopher (c. 250AD) was a strong man seeking to serve the greatest king of all. A hermit told him Jesus was that King, and St. Christopher could serve Him by helping people cross a dangerous river. One day, as he carried a little child across the river, it turned more turbulent while the child grew heavier. Finally reaching the other side, the child told St. Christopher: 'You are carrying Christ, your King Who made the world.' St. Christopher is the patron saint of travellers. His feast day is on 25 July.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, St. Christopher desired to serve You with all his heart. May I have the same love for You. Amen.

St. Edith Stein (1891 – 1942) came from a Jewish family in Poland. After accepting Christ, she became a Carmelite nun with the name St. Benedicta of the Cross. When the Nazis persecuted the Jews during World War II, St. Edith was also arrested and sent to the Auschwitz camp. She remained calm and prayed fervently for peace. She had a chance to escape but she chose to remain with her people to her death. Her feast day is on 9 August.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, You love all peoples. Please help those who are bullied because of who they are. Amen.

St. Genevieve (419 – 502) was born near Paris, France. As a young shepherd girl, she offered her life to God in front of holy bishop St. Germanus. She became known for her piety, prophecies and miracles. She would carry candles that never blew out when she prayed. Through prayer and fasting, she saved Paris from the Attila the Hun's forces. She also convinced another invader, Chideric, to spare the city. St. Genevieve is the patron saint of Paris. Her feast day is on 3 January.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, may Your Light that never blows out shine brightly among those who are facing difficulties. Amen.

St. Helena (c 300AD) was the mother of Emperor Constantine, who ended Christian persecution in the Roman empire. St. Helena spent her time building churches and restoring holy shrines. In Jerusalem, she found three crosses at the place of Jesus' crucifixion. She knew which was the True Cross because it was the one that healed a sick woman who touched all the crosses. St. Helena's feast day is on 18 August.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, thank you for dying for me. Help me to always remember what You did for me on the cross. Amen.

Bl. Imelda Lambertini (1322 – 1333) came from a well-known family in Bologna, Italy. As a little child, she loved prayer and the Mass. When she was five, she asked to receive Jesus in the Eucharist but she was considered too young to do so. When she was eleven, as she knelt to pray during Mass, a miraculous Eucharistic Host appeared over her head. Seeing this, the priest let her received Holy Communion and she died after that while still in joyful prayer. Bl. Imelda is the patron saint of First Communicants. Her feast day is on 12 May.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, thank You for the gift of the Eucharist. I will cherish every moment when I receive Holy Communion. Amen.

St. John Chrysostom (349 – 407) was a great preacher known for his 'golden tongue'. He served as a priest in Syria before becoming the Archbishop of Constantinople. Despite his status, he lived a holy and simple lifestyle. His sermons were so powerful that they are still used today, and St. John is recognized as a Doctor of the Church. Jealous politicians eventually banished him and he died in exile. St. John Chrysostom's feast day is on 13 September.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, You gave St. John Chrysostom the gift of preaching. Give me the words to share well about You with my friends. Amen.

Sts. Louis and Zélie Martin

Sts. Louis and Zélie Martin (19th century) are the parents of St. Thérèse of Lisieux, the French Carmelite nun. St. Louis was a watchmaker and St. Zelie was a lace maker. They had both tried to join religious orders but were rejected because God had greater plans for them as a married couple. Their holy piety inspired all their daughters to become nuns! Life in the Martin Family was not only holy but filled with joy and laughter. Sts. Louis and Zelie were truly parents every child could wish for. Their feast day is on 12 July.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, I thank you for my parents and those who care for me. May families everywhere be united in God's love. Amen.

Bl. Miguel Pro

Bl. Miguel Pro (1891 – 1927) was a Jesuit Priest from Mexico during a time when Catholics were persecuted there. He would secretly visit them to celebrate Mass, hear confessions and help them. As a result, the Mexican government wanted to arrest him. They finally did so by falsely accusing him of trying to murder their president. As Bl. Miguel was put to death, he bravely raised his hands in a cross posture and shouted '¡Viva Cristo Rey!' or 'Long live Christ the King!' His feast day is on 23 November.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, many people are being persecuted for believing in You. I pray that everyone is free to live his or her faith. Amen.

St. Christopher

St. Christopher (c. 250AD) was a strong man seeking to serve the greatest king of all. A hermit told him Jesus was that King, and St. Christopher could serve Him by helping people cross a dangerous river. One day, as he carried a little child across the river, it turned more turbulent while the child grew heavier. Finally reaching the other side, the child told St. Christopher: 'You are carrying Christ, your King Who made the world.' St. Christopher is the patron saint of travellers. His feast day is on 25 July.

Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, St. Christopher desired to serve You with all his heart. May I have the same love for You. Amen.
